

ATTEMPT TO ROB BANK IS FAILURE

Yeggmen Breaking Into State Bank of Carthage During Night Leave Coil and Fuse Behind

WRAPPED IN CHICAGO PAPER

Jimmy Outer Doors of Book Safe But Money Safe is Not Molested—Revolver Only Thing Missing

An attempt to rob the State Bank of Carthage during the night was discovered this morning when the bank was opened for business.

The robbers entered the front door by forcing it open and had broken into the book safe, when they were evidently frightened away.

Nothing was missing, according to a check made by bank officials this morning, except a No. 3 Smith and Wesson revolver.

Sheriff S. L. Hunt, who was notified of the attempted robbery, but was told by the bank officials, he said, that there was no need of him coming to Carthage as nothing had been stolen.

That the yeggmen left in haste was disclosed by the finding of several feet of coil and some fuses on the floor near the safe. They were wrapped in a Chicago newspaper.

The money safe was not tampered with and it is not understood why the robbers should attempt to break into the bank safe first unless they were confused and thought that the safe on which they were working when frightened away, contained the cash.

The book safe weighs five tons and the yeggmen successfully jammed the outer doors and had broken the combination knobs off the inner doors.

No one was found today who saw or heard anything suspicious during the night and no means of determining why the intruders left in such haste has been discovered.

The Carthage bank is located in a room of the new S. L. Newsom block, at the corner of Main and Mill streets, and faces in East Mill street.

This is serving as a temporary location while the bank is erecting a new building on the site of its old building in Main street, a half block south of Mill street.

BOULEVARD TO BE DONE THURSDAY AT LATEST

Crowell Stone Co., of Columbus, O., Rushing it to Completion to Full-Fill Contract

$25 A DAY PENALTY ATTACHED

The construction of Memorial Park boulevard, which has been under way this summer, is nearing completion and will probably be finished late today or Thursday, according to the contractors, the Crowell Stone Company of Columbus, O.

The work of repaving the asphalt coating was started Tuesday morning with a large asphalt truck, and on account of the time being up for the completion of the job, the contractors worked all night applying the coating and rolling it with a steam roller. High powered search lights were used, and the force of men did not stop during the night, with a day shift coming on duty this morning.

The time for completing the job was September 15 and a penalty of $25 a day can be deducted in payment, but in all probability the city will not take advantage of the short length of time.

The Morgan street job was contracted to be finished July 15, and is not done yet, and the city could collect a forfeit on this contract. The concrete base for Morgan street has been laid for several weeks, and the Andrews Asphalt paving company of Hamilton is the contractor for this street and Fifth street, which was finished today with the concrete base, ready for the completion with asphalt.

SENDS REQUEST FOR BALLOTS

Clerk of Election Board Estimates 12,000 Will be Enough

Loren Martin, who in his official capacity as clerk of the circuit court, is ex-officio member of the county board of election commissioners, has sent a request to the state election commission for 12,000 state ticket ballots to be used in Rush county at the general election in November. In addition, he also asked for 500 absent voters' ballots.

The election commission always adds 25 per cent to the number requested by the county commissioners, so it is believed that this will be an ample number of ballots for the county.

The registration figures show that there are approximately 11,000 voters in the county.

Allegation Suit For $10,000 Damages Still in Progress, With Prospect of Ending Thursday

The $10,000 alienation suit, in which Harley D. Holmes is plaintiff and Albert Buell defendant, was still in progress today in the circuit court, with the prospects of it reaching the jury some time Thursday.

Evidence was being introduced again today by the plaintiff in an effort to show the jury that the defendant had stolen the affections of the plaintiff's wife, during the period of time that the married couple lived on the farm owned and occupied by the defendant, near Metamora.

Ernest Holmes, father of the plaintiff, was among the witnesses today. He testified that his son and his wife were happy together, and had never had any domestic difficulty until the third party, the defendant, began to pay his alleged attentions to the woman.

The relationship between the two grew to such proportions that the husband and wife separated, according to the witness, and because of the separation, the demand is being made for $10,000 indemnity.

The plaintiff is a cripple, and has been unable to walk for four years, according to the evidence introduced. The alleged alienation of affections began about the time that the husband was taken ill and was unable (Continued on Page Three)

BELIEVES HE SHOULD ESCAPE DEATH PENALTY

Claude Belzer, 18, Facing First Degree Murder Charge, Knows Nothing of Chicago Crime

WILLING TO GO TO PRISON

(By United Press)

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 17—Claude Belzer, 18 year old murderer in jail here awaiting trial, does not think he ought to suffer the death penalty. Uneducated, illiterate and barely able to write his own name, he knows practically nothing of the Loeb-Leopold case.

He has never heard of an alienist but his untrained, slow working mind found its way unerringly to substantially the same defense as did the super-intellectual minds of the two Chicago millionaire youths.

"Do they send boys under age to the chair?" he asked. "I am willing to take what's coming to me in prison, but I shouldn't go to the chair."

He admits frankly that he beat Robert Tompkins, 23, to death with an iron rod at a glass factory at Arcadia on the night of Sept. 6.

The state will ask for a verdict of first degree murder and the death penalty, Floyd Christian, deputy prosecutor said.

The death penalty has never before been inflicted in Hamilton county, according to Sheriff Sherriek.

CIRCULARS TO TEACHERS

Supt. H. B. Allman Calls Attention To Request Of State Superintendent Of Public Instruction

Constitution week is being emphasized in all of the schools of the city this week and teachers have been requested by H. B. Allman, superintendent, to join in carrying out the request of the state superintendent of public instruction, B. J. Burris, that at least one hour be set aside for a study and discussion of the constitution.

Supt. Allman issued a bulletin to city teachers Monday, calling their attention to the value of stressing constitution week and the request of the state superintendent that the 137th anniversary of the signing of the constitution be appropriately observed.

The following excerpt from the state superintendent's letter was included in the bulletin to local teachers:

"Constitution week, September 14-20 this year, offers a splendid opportunity for further study of this great historic document. It is the hope of the State Department of Public Instruction that one hour at least be set aside in every school in Indiana during this week to be devoted to a discussion of the constitution, its principles and their importance, to the end that it may be better understood and there may be established greater respect for deliberate and lawful procedure under its provisions."

Supt. Allman, in the general circular to teachers, urged that all join in carrying out the request, both in form and in spirit, and asked that they use their own best judgement in determining the particular plan and particular time.

The circular contained information and suggested material that might be used by the teachers, with out making any special preparation for the observance necessary, and closed with the following paragraph:

"We have experienced under constitutional government 135 years of development and prosperity unrivalled in the history of the world. The provisions of our constitution (Continued on Page Five)

SAFELY COMPLETE HOP TO OMAHA TODAY

World Flyers Arrive at Fort Crook Flying Field From Chicago at 12:55 p. m.

INTRODUCED TO THE CROWD

(By United Press)

Ft. Crook Flying Field, Omaha, Neb., Sept. 17—The army world flyers safely completed their hop from Chicago to Omaha today landing at Fort Crook flying field at 12:55 p. m. Carefully circling the field, Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, commander of the flyers, made a perfect landing. He was followed a moment later by Lieut. Wade, Lieut. Eric Nelson then brought his plane safely to the ground.

As the planes landed a crowd estimated at 15,000 broke through the rows of sentries guarding the field, and nearly mobbed the flyers. They were escorted to a platform where Charles Gardner, secretary of the Ak Sar Ben, Omaha's Booster society, introduced them to the crowd through a megaphone.

Maywood Flying Field, Chicago, Sept. 17—Twenty four hours behind the western schedule, the army world flyers hopped off for Omaha at 9:11 a. m., today. The distance is 440 miles and Lieut. Lowell Smith, commander, said he expected the squadron to arrive in time for lunch.

The fog which shrouded the field early in the day vanished under a flood of bright sunshine, enabling the flyers to make their belated start, scheduled for yesterday morning.

FAREWELL FOR DR. J. M. WALKER

Social Meeting at St. Paul's M. E. Church Also in Honor of the Rev. H. W. Hargett's Return

ADDRESS BY WILL M. SPARKS

Retiring District Superintendent and Pastor Make Short Responses—Pitch-in Dinner Served

The members of the St. Paul's M. E. church and their families enjoyed a most delicious pitch-in supper Tuesday evening in the basement of the church, honoring the Rev. J. M. Walker and family, who are leaving this city to go to Evansville, where the former is to be pastor of the Bayard Place church, and also honoring the return of the Rev. H. W. Hargett as pastor of the local church and his family. Following the serving of the bountiful supper a splendid program was given.

Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie had charge of the program and the opening number was a group of solos, "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "Annie Laurie," sung by Miss Helen Jaehne, accompanied on the piano by Miss Jean parks. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McIntosh, Mrs. D. D. VanOsdel, and O. P. Wamsley, sang a beautiful selection entitled "Abide With Me," being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ott to Moore. Little Mary Estelle Compton then favored the audience with two delightful readings, "Who's Afraid," and "Jimmy Brown's Prompt Obedience." She responded with an encore.

Judge Will M. Sparks made a short talk, welcoming the Rev. Mr. Hargett back to this city as pastor of the St. Paul's church, and also giving a farewell message to the Rev. J. M. Walker. In referring to the Rev. Mr. Hargett, he said that he believed there was no pastor of the local church that preached sermons that seemed to appeal to everyone as the Rev. Mr. Hargett did. He urged the congregation to cooperate with the pastor in making this one of the best conference years of the local church. He also warned the people not to magnify the faults of their friends so much but to praise their virtues, as the very essence of the gospel is love and fellowship.

In his farewell speech to Mr. Walker he stated, "what is our loss is their gain," and he meant that statement in every sense of the word. For Rushville and the Connersville (Continued on Page Three)

MAY USE AUSTRALIAN BALLOT

Indiana Will Have 8 or 9 Tickets This Fall, it is Believed

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 17—The state board of election commissioners today was making preparation to have 1,965,690 Australian ballots printed for the coming general election.

With eight or nine tickets practically certain to be entered, voting machines used in 22 counties last election will have to be discarded this time. The voting machines can carry only seven tickets.

Return to the old Australian ballot throughout the state is viewed with disfavor by political leaders. The ballot makes scratching easier and delays tabulation of returns on election night.

Rescue Parties Work Frantically in Hope That Some May be Living in Kemmerer, Wyo., Mine

(By United Press)

Kemmerer, Wyo., Sept. 17—The twelve men who dug themselves out of a side entry, following an explosion which wrecked supplement mine No. 5 of the Kemmerer Coal company, are believed the only survivors of the 47 who were in the mine, company headquarters here said today.

Eleven bodies had been taken to the morgue in Kemmerer at 10 a. m. Twelve others had been located in the mine tunnel and entries and twelve others had not yet been located in the mine.

All other bodies will probably be removed before the end of the day, officials said.

Rescue parties are working frantically to get at the remaining men who were entombed, believing that they might find several alive.

Constant caving of the shattered walls at the mine entrance keeps rescue parties in peril of their lives, and while some workmen are penetrating the debris, others are building barricades to stop the caving.

Council Puts Responsibility for Repairs Upon Property Owners and Will Insist They are Made

SEMI-MONTHLY SESSION

Adjourned Meeting to be Held Soon to Take Further Steps Regarding $14,500 Bond Issue

An order to compel property owners to repair sidewalks in front of their residences, where roots have uprooted them, or where damage has been done from some other reason, was passed at the regular session of the council Tuesday night.

The law sets out that the property owner shall be responsible for the repair of sidewalks, and the city will enforce the act so that the low places and the high places on the sidewalks will be remedied. The greatest inconvenience from uneven walks is the standing water on them following a rain, and not perfecting a drain.

In some portions of the city the roots have caused an upheaval of sections of walks, which makes it dangerous for persons to walk without falling down. Other sections of the city have sidewalks that are broken and unsafe for walking on without a possibility of falling, and the order will be made to include all of these cases.

The street commissioner will take an excursion over the city, probably after a shower, and condemn the sections of sidewalks, and the owner of the property will be asked to make the repair, and if the order is not complied with, the work will be done and charged against the property.

The session of the council last night was not as long and drawn out as some of the previous meetings, and only the routine of business was transacted.

A resolution was passed calling attention to the ordinance passed last year in which firemen were ordered to purchase uniforms. The resolution last night ordered the firemen to wear their uniforms, after purchasing them, and the order reads that they must have their uniforms on by 9:30 each morning, following the clean-up period around the fire station.

A contract for the purchase of an electric pump was made with the Layne Ohio company of Cincinnati, for about $1,600. Bids were received at the last meeting, and the matter was under advisement until last night when the committee reported favorably for the Cincinnati firm. The pump is to be installed at the new (Continued on Page Three)

FAULT WITH PAYING FOUND GROUNDLESS

Number Living on Fifth Street Say They Have No Complaints About The Work

LAST OF CONCRETE IS LAID

A report was circulated this morning that some fault was being found with the way Fifth street was being constructed by the Andrews Asphalt Company, contractors, but a number of property owners along the street were interviewed and all of them said that they had no complaint to make. It was said that the street had not been rolled carefully before the concrete base was laid and that the curb and gutter had been put in unevenly. An investigation disclosed that the street had been rolled and that no new curb was installed, but instead the old stone curbing was straightened and made to take the place of a new cement curb. There is a slight bulge in the cement gutter in places, but it is not enough to impair the appearance of the street, and will not interfere with its lasting qualities.

The last of the concrete base was laid today at the intersection of Fifth and Harrison streets and the street is now ready for asphalt. An employee of the company having the contract for Fifth and Morgan streets said that the Asphalt plant probably would not be here for two weeks to finish the two streets. The company has three asphalt plants in operation and one of them is now in Ohio. It is the one which will be sent here.

NO SERIOUS INJURY DONE TO STATE CROPS

Only in One Place Was Temperature as Low as 32, According to Weather Bureau

CROPS RETARDED HOWEVER

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 17—No serious damage was done corn or vegetable crops by the frost last week except possibly in one or two localities.

This was the belief expressed today by Miner M. Justin, agricultural statistician here.

Only in one place was the temperature as low as 32, according to a weather bureau report.

In order to be killing, the weather must be cold enough to freeze a one-sixteenth of an inch of water and continue that way for a considerable period of time, Justin declared.

The cool weather, however, he said, retards the crop and cuts down the final yield regardless of whether it is cold enough to freeze or not.

Regardless of the prediction that the tomato crop in Indiana may be out nearly fifty per cent this year, the state will still maintain its lead this year as a tomato producing state. The August prediction for the tomato yield was 320,000 tons or a yield 72 per cent of normal. Maryland, the next state in production, will only have a yield of 191,000 tons.

Kosciusko Farmers Are Interested in Legumes

The alfalfa project seems to be the leader in Kosciusko Co. and more inquiries are coming in on that than any other. Arrangements have been made for an alfalfa exhibit at the County Fair and 15 men have already pledged exhibits. A similar number have promised to bring in exhibits of soybean hay. The use of sweet clover to thicken pasture has been well demonstrated on the farm of Roy Stoneburner in Tippecanoe Twp. and Mr. Stoneburner sowed sweet clover seed in a rather open woods pasture and so thick in fact that his woods pasture looks like a sweet clover field with trees in it. Counting the sweet clover in the woods pasture and the soybeans in the corn field, Mr. Stoneburner's farm has every acre in legumes, except that occupied by the buildings and truck patch.

Summer Resorts Popular

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 17—Summer resorts are gaining in popularity in Kosciusko county.

This was reflected today in the increasing valuation set on summer resort properties. At the present time they have a total valuation of $3,432,720, according to a report just compiled by County Assessor S. V. Robinson.

According to Robinson, summer resort property has rapidly increased in value during the past few years and he predicted that it would only be a matter of a few years until the value would be tripled.

A total of 4110 lots in the county are classed as lake lots and are so platted on seven most important of the 37 lakes in the county.

Interstate Public Service Company May Establish Hydro-Electric Plant Near Bristol

ON ST. JOSEPH RIVER

Option Will be Held for About a Year so Engineers May Make Survey of River

Indianapolis Ind Sept 17—The Interstate Public Service company is prospecting for a hydro-electric power plant on the St. Joseph river in Elkhart County, it was announced today by Ernest VanArsdol, vice-president of the company.

The company is planning to take an option on a strip of land on the river just southwest of Bristol. The option will be held for about a year VanArsdol said. In the meantime the company's engineers will make a survey of the river and the site to determine the feasibility of establishing a hydro-electric plant there. After the survey the decision will be made whether or not the right will be purchased.

The plant, if constructed will be a unit in a great network of power plants and transmission lines which the company has spread over the northwestern part of the state. The lines reach as far north as Elkhart county and as far south in that section of the state as Lafayette, the official said.

The St. Joseph river is a moderately large river at that point and would develop just a modern amount of electrical energy.

The Indiana Hydroelectric Power company a subsidiary of the Interstate has completed the largest hydro-electric power plant in the system in the northwestern part of the state. It is located at Norway on the Tippecanoe river in White county. Another unit farther south on the river has been put under construction and a third has been planned.

well, recently drilled for the city.

The city's bond issue for $14,500, which failed to pass the sanction of the successful bidders, will again be taken up, and definite action was deferred for a few days, and an adjourned meeting will be held to complete the details of proceeding further with the bond issue.

An open ditch in West Third street, which was enclosed with a sewer tile several years ago, and extends to the corporation near Hodges Branch, is being filled up by the state highway workers, according to a complaint registered with the council. The city contends that it is entitled to an outlet for the tile, and the highway department is dumping refuse from the roadway, into the ditch, and filling it up. The matter will be taken up with state officials, in an effort to have the ditch cleaned and opened.

The sewer system will soon be laid in Memorial park addition by Stewart and Stewart, and it was suggested that the sewer committee investigate a system of laying the tile, fastened with an asphalt preparation, to prevent roots from doing damage in later years.

The preliminary plans for the landscaping of Memorial park were presented by James A. Lowry of Indianapolis, who was employed several months ago to assist in beautifying the new addition to the park. The preliminary survey was made so that suggestions and changes can be made, and the man will be exhibited in some down town store window for inspection, before final acceptance of the plans.

district will be losing a valuable man he said, and that the St. Paul's church regretted very much losing the Rev. Mr. Walker, but wished him success in his new pastorate.

Following Judge Sparks' speech, the quartet again rendered a selection entitled "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," and was followed by a short speech by the Rev. Mr. Hargett, who stated he was glad to return to this charge again for another year and would make an effort to make this a more successful year than the preceding one.

The Rev. J. M. Walker also made a talk in which he expressed his regret at having to leave this city, as their entire family loved to live here. He also made a short explanation of the duties of a district superintendent and the organization of the church as a whole. He stated that there was two things that made the Episcopal church what it is now, and that was the power of God in the hearts of the people and the splendid organization of the church.

Dr. Severinghaus of Seymour, father of Mrs. J. M. Walker, who was a guest at the meeting, responded with a short talk, which closed the program for the evening.

The parties resided in Connersville for a period of years, and the plaintiff and his wife were induced to move to the defendant's home on the farm in Franklin county, to keep house for the defendant, following the death of his wife, according to the testimony introduced at the trial.

It was expected that the plaintiff would finish with their portion of the evidence this afternoon, and the defense had several witnesses summoned for the purpose of disputing the evidence introduced by the plaintiff.

Among the new cases filed is a complaint for divorce, brought by George A. Kyle against Margie Kyle and in which he charges abandonment.

They were married October 10, 1922 in California according to the complaint, and separated July 22, 1923, when she is charged with leaving him for no reason, and returning to her native state. The plaintiff resides at 301 West First street, the complaint says.

THOUSANDS SIGNING PETITION FOR PARDON

DARROW INVITED TO HELP

By H. R. COX
(C. P. Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Sept. 17—Thousands of person from all walks of life are signing the pardon petition for Bernard Grant, 19, under sentence of death in connection with a murder, Attorney E. Swanson in charge of the fight to secure mercy for the poverty stricken boy, announced today.

More than a dozen women's clubs have taken up the fight, Swanson said. A mass meeting of heads of these clubs was called in Swanson's office for today to adopt resolutions condemning interpretation of the law to favor the rich.

"They all agree that if Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, sons of millionaires, are too young to hang, then Grant, who is of the same age, but poor, very poor, is too young to hang," Swanson said.

Swanson today formally invited Clarence Darrow, who saved Leopold and Loeb from the gallows for their murder of Bobby Franks, to assist in saving Grant. Darrow, through the United Press yesterday announced he would take a hand in the fight on his return from his vacation at the Loeb summer home at Charlevoix, Mich.

Tipton—Mrs. C. L. O'Banion had to cut away part of the window casing to free her little daughter who had her hand caught when the window dropped.

Attica—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gray attach unusual significance to their baby girl. The child was born on defense day and Mrs. Gray was a war bride.

Costly Negligence

Negligence in driving automobiles, which causes them to run into railroad trains is going to prove costly, because railroads have announced that they expect to retaliate; that instead of being on the defensive as in the past, they will be the complaining parties at the bar of justice.

Not so long ago the Great Northern railroad won a verdict for damages against a resident of Great Falls, Montana, who drove his automobile into a freight train, smashing the side of a freight car. The amount collected was small, but the railroad values the judgment as a precedent and expects to press suits of similar character where the motorist is at fault.

Though railroads are frequently at fault in running trains through towns and cities too fast, every fair-minded person will admit that they have done much to teach the motoring public caution. It has availed them little, and while they will not lessen their efforts to save lives and themselves damage suits, they can not be blamed if they retaliate in kind.

With millions of automobiles in America, the problem of keeping them off the railroad tracks becomes more and more perplexing. If the railroad companies, in threatening to collect damages and thus touch a vital spot with the automobile owner, can reduce the number of accidents at railroad crossings, they will perform a service not alone for themselves, but for the motoring public as well.

Every other means having failed, the railroads will not be censured for taking this course. The reckless driver, instead of receiving sympathy, will have to show cause why he should not be held responsible for his acts. This may cause him to think twice when he approaches a railroad crossing.

Land Bargains Going

The week seldom passes that does not witness the sale of another Rush county farm to a man living outside the county.

For some time past we have been pointing to the significance of outsiders coming here to buy farm land. It can mean only one thing—that Rush county land is so cheap that far-seeing men, when they learn the way good farms have been selling, are quick to snap up the bargains.

But the bargains will not last forever. In fact, they are already growing scarce. Rush county men who have money to invest will some day awaken to the fact that they have made a very grievous error in permitting outside capital to buy up the farm real estate that has been selling for far less than it is actually worth.

The awakening process is already under way. Farmers are beginning to see light ahead and in taking stock of their possessions, they are finding that what they have is much more valuable than what it had been rated at in their minds.

As this feeling grows and the farms that can be purchased decrease in number, the price of land is going to mount.

Local investors who are permitting the bargains to slip through their fingers will some day regret that their judgment failed them.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Despite his approval of fraternal orders, as voiced by his address a few weeks ago to representatives of the fraternal congress who called at the White House, President Coolidge is not a "joiner." He belongs to no lodges, societies or similar organizations and knows no secret grips, passwords or incantations.

By accident rather than design on the part of the Republican convention, Coolidge's running mate, General Dawes, also is an outsider in fraternal affairs, never having ridden the zoot at an initiation or otherwise qualified to wear the jewelry and insignia of any secret order.

If, as suggested, Dawes' failure to line up with the great mass of Americans as a "lodge member" was due to his alleged aversion to keeping secrets rather than his reluctance to taking an oath, then Coolidge's non-participation may be explained by the reverse formula: that while Coolidge could keep all the secrets—that is one of the best things Cal does—he doesn't like to swear to do so.

The oath of office is declared to be the only oath ever indulged in by the president.

ALL four Democratic and Independent candidates for president and vice president, by contrast, are lodge members. Davis, La Follette and Wheeler are Masons, each having gone through all the grades up to and including the thirty-second degree. Bryan is an Odd Fellow.

ALTHOUGH the candidates' score is imperfect in the matter of fraternal allegiance, 100 per cent membership is claimed in the matter of religious affiliations. Davis and Dawes are Presbyterians.

Bryan and La Follette are Baptists.

Coolidge is a Congregationalist and Wheeler a Methodist. Harding was the first Baptist ever sent to the White House and Coolidge the first Congregationalist.

Davis, should he be elected, would enable the Presbyterians to tie the record of the Episcopalians, who today head the list with eight presidents to the Presbyterians' seven.

Next in line are the Unitarians, with four, and the Methodists with three. The Dutch Reformed Church has had two and the Campbellites one.

To help Republicans "stick to Coolidge," G. O. P. headquarters is getting out millions of little stickers, about the size of postage stamps, bearing the admonition "Keep Cool."

Coolidge's picture on the stamp immediately suggests that the way to keep cool is to keep Coolidge.

ONE of the most interesting occasions at the White House in recent months got notice only in the society columns of Washington papers.

This was the over-Sunday visit, Sept. 12, of former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois.

On the face of it, and so far as any publicity about it went, the Lowden visit was purely a social one. Yet it is hard to imagine either Lowden or Coolidge week ending together from sheer social regard for each other. Particularly after Lowden declined the honor of second place on the ticket with Coolidge.

Could a transcript of their conversation be obtained, it would be easy to get odds that it dealt principally with the state of Illinois politics. Lowden, if he will, can be a big help to the G. O. P. out there.

If he does, the Illinois campaign certainly will be no "social affair."

Double Bill at Princess

The Princess crowds will enjoy a rare treat Wednesday and Thursday. They will have about the best saxophone organization that ever created music through the moaning dancing.

"For Sale," the First National screen version of Earl Hudson's story which is on exhibition at the Princess theatre shows an exact reproduction of the celebrated Le Ciel du L'Enfer Cafes of Paris, which translated means Heaven and Hell. Artists were sent to Paris to photograph cafes in the Montmartre and the result was a faithful representation of the locale of one of the thrilling sequences of the story. The whimsical French idea of placing Heaven and Hell next door to each other is symbolic of the theme of the picture which deals with the unhappiness and suffering of a wealthy girl, who apparently, having everything, yet has not love.

Heaven Cafe is adorned with a blue sky studded with glittering stars and with angels and cherubs gliding through space. Hell Cafe represents the head of the devil with his huge open mouth serving as the entrance; large blazing eyes, giant tusks for teeth, and a leering, sardonic grin.

It is here that the various members of the cast, Claire Windsor, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Ellis, Mary Carr, Tully Marshall and Vera Reynolds go in their picture characters. George Archibald, himself a Frenchman, directed the picture, which is said to reflect Parisian slum life with extreme veracity.

Stomach Trouble And Nervousness
Now Gone And Mrs. Jester Is Happy and Smiling

"Yes, sir, the credit for restoring my wife's health goes to Tanlac and I'm mighty glad to say so, for it does my heart good to see her so cheerful, happy and contented," enthusiastically states O. E. Jester, R. F. D. "6" or P. O. Box 648, Indianapolis, Ind., well known C. I. & W. Railroad freight claim adjuster.

"My wife suffered from stomach trouble three years and her appetite and strength finally dwindled down to near nothing. The lightest meal caused gas, heartburn and palpitation and her nerves were so tightly strung she could neither sleep well or stand any confusion. Dizziness, headaches and biliousness further aggravated her, and she was miserably weak.

"Since Tanlac relieved her ailments so thoroughly, my wife eats, sleeps and feels like a schoolgirl. She has gained weight until she hardly looks like the same person and even goes through a hard day's work at home joyful and smiling."

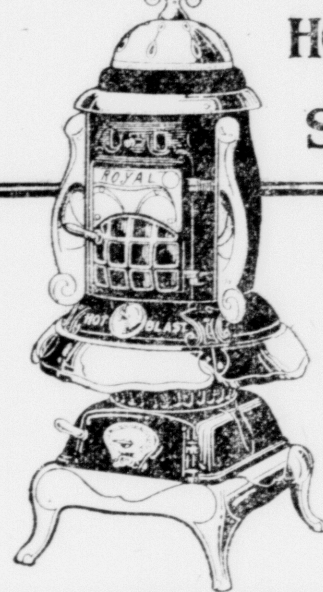

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

SERIES RULES TO BE MADE SUNDAY

Improbable That Baseball Classic

NATIONAL CLOSES SEPT. 29

Giants Increase Lead to Game and

New York, Sept. 17—Such rules for the 1924 worlds series that can be undertaken before the winning team is known will be made here Sunday at a meeting of the presidents of the six contending clubs and Commissioner Landis.

The National League season closes Sept. 29 and the American schedule ends the following day. The series hardly could be started without one day of rest for the players so it is improbable that the classics will start before October 2.

In order to avoid a gamble with treacherous October weather, the games will be played as rapidly as weather conditions permit. If Detroit does not play the American League end, the teams could make overnight jumps and play on successive days.

In calling the meeting of the contending club owners, Commissioner Landis again failed to include an invitation of the presidents of the two leagues, John A. Heydler and Ban Johnson. The critics, remembering Johnson's warth last year are looking to another warm winter of politics and a revival of the Landis-Johnson feud.

By splitting even in a double-header with the Reds while the Brooklyn Robins were taking an awful pasting from the St. Louis Cards, the New York Giants increased their lead to a game and a half over the Robins. The Pirates broke even against the Phils but gained a half game on Brooklyn.

While the Yankees were rained out of competition in St. Louis, the Washington Senators beat the Indians and got a half game lead of three points.

The Detroit Tigers took a fine mauling from the Athletics and fell 4½ games behind the Yankees.

EMPHASIZED IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

adequate to all need of a good government. Let us try to instill in the minds of the children a reverence for our constitution, as the fundamental law, and an appreciation for the rights and privileges of American citizenship. Governments are no more enduring than the loyalty and patriotism of their citizens.

When British and Yanks Clashed

There was plenty of real action in the first of the series of international polo matches between the American and British teams at Meadowbrook Club, Westbury, L. I. And the Prince of Wales was an added attraction. But "Eddie's" boys lost out, 16-5.

NET STARS AT GREENSBURG

Rushville High School Court Team
Goes For Contest Today

The first branch of sports for the Rushville high school for this season was to be indulged in this afternoon, when a tennis team composed of the stars in schools, went to Greensburg to meet a team of that city. A return game will be played here next week with Greensburg, and other matches are being planned with nearby cities.

The team from here was composed of Robert Newbold, Loren Winkler, Mike Arnette, Barton Cartmel and Marlin Alexander.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero: Jim Bottomly Cardinal first baseman who with six hits smashed in 12 of his team's 17 runs, establishing a new major league record. The Cardinals had little difficulty in defeating the Dodgers 17 to 3.

The Senators went into the lead in the American League by defeating Cleveland 6 to 2 while the Yankees were rained out at St. Louis.

The Giants leaped farther into the lead in the National League, by splitting a pair of games with Cincinnati, while Brooklyn was losing.
McQuillan won the first game for the McGraw men 5 to 1 while May let down the Giants in the second 3 to 1.

The Pirates broke even in a double bill with Philadelphia losing the first 6-5 and winning the second 13 to 7.

Earl Sheely tripled in the first inning with the bases clogged and the White Sox breezed along to an 8 to 4 victory over the Red Sox.

Detroit took a vicious trouncing from the Athletics 14 to 2.

BAND CONCERT AND VAUDEVILLE SHOW

There will be an oyster supper and band concert at New Salem school Thursday evening, and the public is invited to attend. There also will be a fish pond and a short vaudeville show. The band concert program to be rendered during the evening is as follows:

March, "Burning of Rome"
Selection, "Poet and Peasant"
Valse Voluptue
Intermission
Washington Gray March
Greeting Breezes
Indian Summer
Dangerous Blues

THE GORED BULL

A sharp right from Harry Wills to Luis Angel Firpo's ribs sent the Argentintian to the canvass for the count of two in the second round in their little debate in Jersey City. It was the only knockdown in the show. But it showed the "wild bull" wasn't half so wild as he was touted.

Senators Furnish Thrill

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 17—When the committee of the United State Lawn Tennis Association, delegated to rank the American stars, meets at the end of the current season, it will have a job on its hands picking the players for the first 10 in both classes.

First place, of course, does not have to be considered. Selecting the best player in the men's and women's decision is no more than the formality and the exertion of writing William T. Tilden and Miss Helen Wills on the slip of paper.

While, in an extreme case, the winner of the national championships might not be the best player in the country, there is no doubt as to the standing of Tilden and Miss Wills.
They are both head and shoulders above their classes.

Tilden, because of his differences with the association officials, passed through a season of comparative inactivity as far as tournament competition was concerned. He did a lot of playing, of course, but before entry into the national tournament in defense of his championship, he had confined his game principally to the exhibition circuit.

Tilden could have cinched first place on the ranking list, however, if he had played only once during the season because in that one tournament he demonstrated most convincingly that he is not only the best player in the United States but the world's champion.

After the most brilliant season of her career, Miss Helen Wills, the 18-year-old national women's champion, did even more than Tilden to win first place on the ranking list. Her claim for a world's championship was not as firmly established as that of Tilden's, but she accomplished enough during a busy season to make her position clear as the women's world's champion for the season, at least.

The pretty, young California girl won the Olympic and national singles championship. With Mrs. George Wightman, Boston, she won the Wimbledon, Olympic and American doubles championship, and with young Vincent Richards she won the American mixed doubles championship.
Very little more could have been accomplished by any player.

Cowing, Mrs. Boyd as leader requested each person present to tell some fact about what the Presbyterian church is doing for missions. DEATH KNEEL OF NUDE STOCKINGS WITH RETURN OF OLD BLACK HOSE

By HEDDA HOYT
(Fashion Editor of the United Press)
New York, N. Y., Sept. 17—
You can always bank upon the stocking.

To follow Fashions though, they're shocking. Where once dull black was deemed quite neat. That shade was met with great defeat. And shades that followed—a la mode—were deemed as 'chie' and not as 'rude'.

And all the ladies looked as though they had bare underpins and so. Dame Fashion who's a wise old wren just called black stockings in again! Peal out, ye bells! And sound the death knell of the nude stocking. And peal out, ye Bells, of your nude leg encasements for the old black sock is to return!

Doubtless the nude stocking will have a long, drawn out demise as women will hate to suddenly give up light hosiery and return to more subdued tones. But there was a time when a sheer, black stocking on a shapely leg was considered mighty attractive and that day is coming back again.

In condoling those who weep over the 'nude's' demise let us say that 'legs is legs' after all and a pretty leg is even prettier in a dark stocking than in a nude one. Artists have said that there's nothing prettier about a nude leg and that any leg looks larger in nude hosiery. A motion picture director in speaking of a famous star once said, "Some women are born with large ankles and others wear nude stockings."

Nude hosiery has certainly been much overdone. Women haven't stopped to consider the size or shape of their ankles when triggling them out in hosiery that was bound to attract attention to their ungainliness. Nude hosiery has made legs—just legs! As an intriguing factor legs today rate as nil. They are just a blur of nude.

FORMER FORT WAYNE MAN

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 17—Fort Wayne claims the honor of having among its former residents the discoverer of the new anti-scarlet fever serum, it was learned today.

The discoverer is Dr. George Dick, graduate of the Fort Wayne high school in 1900. The discovery is ranked in importance with the discovery of salvarsan, near-salvarsan, an insulin. It was made by Dr. Dick and his wife Gladys Dick after fourteen years of research at the Memorial Institute of Infectious diseases, at Chicago.

A supply of serum was received by a Fort Wayne clinic several weeks ago and has proven a complete success in experimentation.

Kokomo—Harold Haymer returned here to face double grief. He found his wife whom he had been suing for divorce was dead. Judge Marshall sentenced him to thirty days for failure to support her.

CAMPAIGN DAY BY DAY

Senator Barton K. Wheeler, independent vice presidential candidate, furnished the day's political sensation with a statement charging that "the Ohio gang headed by Harry M. Daugherty and assisted by the Burns Detective Agency and the Republican national committee" are threatening blackmail proceedings against him.

Wheeler's statement came as he started the independent campaign in Ohio, Daugherty's home state.

John W. Davis, Democratic nominee invaded Iowa for a series of speeches in an effort to win the west for his party.

The White House denied reports that President Coolidge called Secretary of the Navy Wilbur from the Pacific coast because of fear that his statements there would have an unfavorable reaction on the president's campaign for reelection.

THE BETTER WAY

The one certain way to know that you will always be ready to go whenever and wherever you want to go, is to have your car thoroughly inspected by us at regular intervals. Then if anything is out of adjustment we can fix it before any real damage occurs. It's the only practical and economical way. Think it over and then make it a practice to bring your car in at regular times, no matter how well it happens to be running at the time.

ATTEMPT TO ROB BANK IS FAILURE

Yeggmen Breaking Into State Bank of Carthage During Night Leave Coil and Fuse Behind

WRAPPED IN CHICAGO PAPER

Jimmy Outer Doors of Book Safe But Money Safe is not Molested—Revolver Only Thing Missing

An attempt to rob the State Bank of Carthage during the night was discovered this morning when the bank was opened for business.

The robbers entered the front door by forcing it open and had broken into the book safe, when they were evidently frightened away.

Nothing was missing, according to a check made by bank officials, this morning, except a No. 3 Smith and Wesson revolver.

Sheriff S. L. Hinn, was notified of the attempted robbery, but was told by the bank officials, he said, that there was no need of him coming to Carthage as nothing had been stolen.

That the yeggmen left in haste was disclosed by the finding of several feet of coil and some fuses on the floor near the safe. They were wrapped in a Chicago newspaper.

The money safe was not tampered with and it is not understood why the robbers should attempt to break into the book safe first unless they were confused and thought that the safe on which they were working when frightened away, contained the cash.

The book safe weighs five tons and the yeggmen successfully jammed the outer doors and had broken the combination knobs off the inner doors.

No one was found today who saw or heard anything suspicious during the night and no means of determining why the intruders left in such haste has been discovered.

The Carthage bank is located in a room of the new S. L. Newsom block, at the corner of Main and Mill streets, and faces in East Mill street.

This is serving as a temporary location while the bank is erecting a new building on the site of its old building in Main street, a half block south of Mill street.

BOULEVARD TO BE DONE THURSDAY AT LATEST

Crowell Stone Co., of Columbus, O., Rushing it to Completion to Full Contract

$25 A DAY PENALTY ATTACHED

The construction of Memorial Park boulevard, which has been under way this summer, is nearing completion, and will probably be finished by today or Thursday, according to the contractors, the Crowell Stone Company of Columbus, O.

The work of applying the asphalt coating was started Tuesday morning with a large asphalt truck, and on account of the time being up for the completion of the job, the contractors worked all night applying the coating and rolling it with a steam roller. High powered search lights were used, and the force of men did not stop during the night, with a day shift coming on duty this morning.

The time for completing the job was September 15 and a penalty of $25 a day can be deducted in payment, but in all probability the city will not take advantage of the short length of time.

The Morgan street job was contracted to be finished July 15, and is now done yet, and the city could collect a penalty on this contract. The concrete base for Morgan street has been laid for several weeks, and the Andrews Asphalt paving company of Hamilton has the contract for this street and Fifth street, which was finished today with the concrete base, ready for the completion with asphalt.

SENDS REQUEST FOR BALLOTS

Clerk of Election Board Estimates 12,000 Will be Enough

Loren Martin, who in his official capacity as clerk of the circuit court, is ex-officio member of the county board of election commissioners, has sent a request to the state election commission for 12,000 state ticket ballots to be used in Rush county at the general election in November. In addition, he also asked for 500 absent voters' ballots.

The election commission always adds 25 per cent to the number requested by the county commissioners, so it is believed that this will be an ample number of ballots for the county.

The registration figures show that there are approximately 11,000 voters in the county.

HOLMES' FATHER GIVES EVIDENCE

Ernest Holmes Says Son and Wife Were Happy Until Albert Buell Began to Press Attention

SEPARATION WAS RESULT

Alienation Suit For $10,000 Damages Still in Progress, With Prospect of Ending Thursday

The $10,000 alienation suit, in which Harley D. Holmes is plaintiff and Albert Buell defendant, was still in progress today in the circuit court, with the prospects of it reaching the jury some time Thursday.

Evidence was being introduced again today by the plaintiff in an effort to show the jury that the defendant had stolen the affections of the plaintiff's wife, during the period of time that the married couple lived on the farm owned and occupied by the defendant, near Metamora.

Ernest Holmes, father of the plaintiff, was among the witnesses today. He testified that his son and his wife were happy together, and had never had any domestic difficulty until the third party, the defendant, began to pay his alleged attentions to the woman.

The relationship between the two grew to such proportions that the husband and wife separated, according to the witness, and because of the separation, the demand is being made for $10,000 judgment.

The plaintiff is a cripple, and has been unable to walk for four years, according to the evidence introduced. The alleged alienation of affections began about the time that the husband was taken ill and was unable to work.

BELIEVES HE SHOULD ESCAPE DEATH PENALTY

Claude Belzer, 18, Facing First Degree Murder Charge, Knows Nothing of Chicago Crime

WILLING TO GO TO PRISON

(By United Press)

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 17—Claude Belzer, 18 year old murderer in jail here awaiting trial, does not think he ought to suffer the death penalty.

Uneducated, illiterate and barely able to write his own name, he knows practically nothing of the Leeb-Leopold case.

He has never heard of an alienist but his untrained, slow working mind found its way unerringly to substantially the same defense as did the super-intellectual minds of the two Chicago millionaire youths.

"Do they send boys under age to the chair?" he asked. "I am willing to take what's coming to me in prison, but I shouldn't go to the chair."

He admits frankly that he beat Robert Tompkins, 23, to death with an iron rod at a glass factory at Arcadia on the night of Sept. 6.

The state will ask for a verdict of first degree murder and the death penalty. Floyd Christian, deputy prosecutor said.

The death penalty has never before been inflicted in Hamilton county, according to Sheriff Sherrick.

Constitution Week Observed in Rushville By One Hour Being Set Aside To Study Document

CIRCULARS TO TEACHERS

Supt. H. B. Allman Calls Attention To Request Of State Superintendent Of Public Instruction

Constitution week is being emphasized in all of the schools of the city this week and teachers have been requested by H. B. Allman, superintendent, to join in carrying out the request of the state superintendent of public instruction, B. J. Barris, that at least one hour be set aside for a study and discussion of the constitution.

Supt. Allman issued a bulletin to city teachers Monday, calling their attention to the value of stressing constitution week and the request of the state superintendent that the 137th anniversary of the signing of the constitution be appropriately observed.

The following excerpt from the state superintendent's letter was included in the bulletin to local teachers:

"Constitution week, September 14-20 this year, offers a splendid opportunity for further study of this great historic document. It is the hope of the State Department of Public Instruction that one hour at least be set aside in every school in Indiana during this week to be devoted to a discussion of the constitution, its principles and their importance, to the end that it may be better understood and there may be established greater respect for deliberate and lawful procedure under its provisions."

Supt. Allman, in the general circular to teachers, urged that all join in carrying out the request, both in form and in spirit, and asked that they use their own best judgment in determining the particular plan and particular time.

The circular contained information and suggested material that might be used by the teachers, with out making any special preparation for the observance necessary, and closed with the following paragraph:

"We have experienced under constitutional government 135 years of development and prosperity unrivalled in the history of the world. The provisions of our constitution (Continued on Page Five)

SAFELY COMPLETE HOP TO OMAHA TODAY

World Flyers Arrive at Fort Crook Flying Field From Chicago at 12:55 p. m.

INTRODUCED TO THE CROWD

(By United Press)

Ft. Crook Flying Field, Omaha, Neb., Sept. 17—The army world flyers safely completed their hop from Chicago to Omaha today landing at Fort Crook flying field at 12:55 p. m.

Carefully circling the field, Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, commander of the flyers, made a perfect landing. He was followed a moment later by Lieut. Wade, Lieut. Eric Nelson then brought his plane safely to the ground.

As the planes landed a crowd estimated at 15,000 broke through the rows of sentries guarding the field, and nearly mobbed the flyers. They were escorted to a platform where Charles Gardner, secretary of the Ak Sar Ben, Omaha's Booster society, introduced them to the crowd through a megaphone.

Maywood Flying Field, Chicago, Sept. 17—Twenty four hours behind the western schedule, the army world flyers hopped off for Omaha at 9:11 a. m., today. The distance is 440 miles and Lieut. Lowell Smith, commander, said he expected the squadron to arrive in time for lunch.

The fog which shrouded the field early in the day vanished under a flood of bright sunshine, enabling the flyers to make their belated start, scheduled for yesterday morning.

FAREWELL FOR DR. J. M. WALKER

Social Meeting at St. Paul's M. E. Church Also in Honor of the Rev. H. W. Hargett's Return

ADDRESS BY WILL M. SPARKS

Retiring District Superintendent and Pastor Make Short Responses—Pitch-in Dinner Served

The members of the St. Paul's M. E. church and their families enjoyed a most delicious pitch-in supper Tuesday evening in the basement of the church, honoring the Rev. J. M. Walker and family, who are leaving this city to go to Evansville, where the former is to be pastor of the Bayard Place church, and also honoring the return of the Rev. H. W. Hargett as pastor of the local church and his family. Following the serving of the bountiful supper a splendid program was given.

Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie had charge of the program and the opening number was a group of solos, "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "Annie Laurie," sung by Miss Helen Jaehne, accompanied on the piano by Miss Jean parks. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McIntosh, Mrs. D. D. VanOsdel, and O. P. Wamsley, sang a beautiful selection entitled "Abide With Me," being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. O. Moore. Little Mary Estelle Compton then favored the audience with two delightful readings, "Who's Afraid," and "Jimmy Brown's Prompt Obedience." She responded with an encore.

Judge Will M. Sparks made a short talk, welcoming the Rev. Mr. Hargett back to this city as pastor of the St. Paul's church, and also giving a farewell message to the Rev. J. M. Walker. In referring to the Rev. Mr. Hargett, he said that he believed there was no pastor of the local church that preached sermons that seemed to appeal to everyone as the Rev. Mr. Hargett did. He urged the congregation to cooperate with the pastor in making this one of the best conference years of the local church. He also warned the people not to magnify the faults of their friends so much but to praise their virtues, as the very essence of the gospel is love and fellowship.

In his farewell speech to Mr. Walker he stated, "what is our loss is their gain," and he meant that statement in every sense of the word. For Rushville and the Connersville (Continued on Page Three)

MAY USE AUSTRALIAN BALLOT

Indiana Will Have 2 or 9 Tickets This Fall, it is Believed

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 17—The state board of election commissioners today was making preparation to have 1,965,690 Australian ballots printed for the coming general election.

With eight or nine tickets practically certain to be entered, voting machines used in 22 counties last election will have to be discarded this time. The voting machines can carry only seven tickets.

Return to the old Australian ballot throughout the state is viewed with disfavor by political leaders. The ballot makes scratching easier and delays tabulation of returns on election night.

Dozen Miners Dig Their Way Out of a Side Entry and are Believed to be Only Survivors

ELEVEN BODIES RECOVERED

Rescue Parties Work Frantically in Hope That Some May be Living in Kemmerer, Wyo., Mine

(By United Press)

Kemmerer, Wyo., Sept. 17—The twelve men who dug themselves out of a side entry, following an explosion which wrecked supplement mine No. 5 of the Kemmerer Coal company, are believed the only survivors of the 47 who were in the mine company headquarters there said today.

Eleven bodies had been taken to the morgue in Kemmerer at 10 a. m. Twelve others had been located in the mine tunnel and entries and twelve others had not yet been located in the mine.

All other bodies will probably be removed before the end of the day, officials said.

Rescue parties are working frantically to get at the remaining men who were entombed, believing that they might find several alive.

Constant caving of the shattered walls at the mine entrance keeps rescue parties in peril of their lives, and while some workmen are penetrating the debris, others are building barricades to stop the caving.

FUNERAL FRIDAY, 2:33 P. M.

John G. Gartin, a prominently known retired farmer died this morning about 9:30 o'clock at his farm home, just east of Rushville, death resulting from a long illness of a complication of diseases. The deceased was born in Jackson township, this county, and has spent his entire life here.

He was 78 years of age last June, and celebrated his birthday anniversary with his twin sister, Mrs. Samantha E. Armstrong of Marion. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil War.

He is survived by his widow and five children, Edmund and Omer Gartin of this city and John Jr., who lives at home, and two daughters, Mrs. Audie Newhouse and Mrs. Cora Nixon, who live in Jackson township. The deceased also is survived by a step daughter, Adonis Gorrell, who lives at home, and the sister mentioned above, who lives in Marion.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the late residence, in charge of the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, of which he was a member. Interment will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Council Puts Responsibility for Repairs Upon Property Owners and Will Insist They are Made

SEMI-MONTHLY SESSION

Adjourned Meeting to be Held Soon to Take Further Steps Regarding $14,500 Bond Issue

An order to compel property owners to repair sidewalks in front of their residences, where roots have uplifted them, or where damage has been done from some other reason, was passed at the regular session of the council Tuesday night.

The law sets out that the property owner shall be responsible for the repair of sidewalks, and the city will enforce the act so that the low places and the high places on the sidewalks will be remedied. The greatest inconvenience from uneven walks is the standing water on them following a rain, and not perfecting a drain.

In some portions of the city the roots have caused an upheaval of sections of walks, which makes it dangerous for persons to walk without falling down. Other sections of the city have sidewalks that are broken and unsafe for walking on without a possibility of falling, and the order will be made to include all of these cases.

The street commissioner will take an excursion over the city, probably after a shower, and condemn the sections of sidewalks, and the owner of the property will be asked to make the repair, and if the order is not complied with, the work will be done and charged against the property.

The session of the council last night was not as long and drawn out as some of the previous meetings, and only the routine of business was transacted.

A resolution was passed calling attention to the ordinance passed last year in which firemen were ordered to purchase uniforms. The resolution last night ordered the firemen to wear their uniforms, after purchasing them, and the order reads that they must have their uniforms on by 9:30 each morning, following the clean-up period around the fire station.

A contract for the purchase of an electric pump was made with the Layne Ohio company of Cincinnati, for about $1,600. Bids were received at the last meeting, and the matter was under advisement until last night when the committee reported favorably for the Cincinnati firm. The pump is to be installed at the new (Continued on Page Three)

FAULT WITH PAYING FOUND GROUNDLESS

Number Living on Fifth Street Say They Have No Complaints About The Work

LAST OF CONCRETE IS LAID

A report was circulated this morning that some fault was being found with the way Fifth street was being constructed by the Andrews Asphalt Company, contractors, but a number of property owners along the street were interviewed and all of them said that they had no complaint to make.

It was said that the street had not been rolled carefully before the concrete base was laid and that the curb and gutter had been put in unevenly. An investigation disclosed that the street had been rolled and that no new curb was installed, but instead the old stone curbing was straightened and made to take the place of a new cement curb. There is a slight bulge in the cement gutter in places, but it is not enough to impair the appearance of the street, and will not interfere with its lasting qualities.

The last of the concrete base was laid today at the intersection of Fifth and Harrison streets and the street is now ready for asphalt. An employee of the company having the contract for Fifth and Morgan streets said that the Asphalt plant probably would not be here for two weeks to finish the two streets. The company has three asphalt plants in operation and one of them is now in Ohio. It is the one which will be sent here.

Kosciusko Farmers Are Interested In Legumes

The alfalfa project seems to be the leader in Kosciusko Co. and more inquiries are coming in on that than any other. Arrangements have been made for an alfalfa exhibit at the County Fair and 15 men have already pledged exhibits. A similar number have promised to bring in exhibits of soybean hay. The use of sweet clover to thicken pasture has been well demonstrated on the farm of Roy Stoneburner in Tippecanoe Twp. and Mr. Stoneburner sowed sweet clover seed in a rather open woods pasture and so thick in fact that his woods pasture looks like a sweet clover field with trees in it. Counting the sweet clover in the woods pasture and the soybeans in the corn field, Mr. Stoneburner's farm has every acre in legumes, except that occupied by the buildings and truck patch.

NO SERIOUS INJURY DONE TO STATE CROPS

Only in One Place Was Temperature as Low as 32, According to Weather Bureau

CROPS RETARDED HOWEVER

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 17.—No serious damage was done corn or vegetable crops by the frost last week except possibly in one or two localities.

This was the belief expressed today by Miner M. Justin, agricultural statistician here.

Only in one place was the temperature as low as 32, according to a weather bureau report.

In order to be killing, the weather must be cold enough to freeze a one-sixteenth of an inch of water and continue that way for a considerable period of time, Justin declared.

The cool weather, however, he said, retards the crop and cuts down the final yield regardless of whether it is cold enough to freeze or not.

Regardless of the prediction that the tomato crop in Indiana may be out nearly fifty per cent this year, the state will still maintain its lead this year as a tomato producing state. The August prediction for the tomato yield was 320,000 tons or a yield 72 per cent of normal. Maryland, the next state in production, will only have a yield of 191,000 tons.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 17.—Summer resorts are gaining in popularity in Kosciusko county.

This was reflected today in the increasing valuation set on summer resort properties. At the present time they have a total valuation of $3,432,720, according to a report just compiled by County Assessor S. V. Robinson.

According to Robinson, summer resort property has rapidly increased in value during the past few years and he predicted that it would only be a matter of a few years until the value would be tripled.

A total of 4110 lots in the county are classed as lake lots and are so platted on seven most important of the 37 lakes in the county.

Interstate Public Service Company May Establish Hydro-Electric Plant Near Bristol

ON ST. JOSEPH RIVER

Option Will be Held for About a Year so Engineers May Make Survey of River

Indianapolis Ind Sept 17.—The Interstate Public Service company is prospecting for a hydro-electric power plant on the St. Joseph river in Elkhart County, it was announced today by Ernest VanArsdol, vice-president of the company.

The company is planning to take an option on a strip of land on the river just southwest of Bristol. The option will be held for about a year, Van Arsdel said. In the meantime the company's engineers will make a survey of the river and the site to determine the feasibility of establishing a hydro-electric plant there. After the survey the decision will be made whether or not the right will be purchased.

The plant, if constructed will be a unit in a great network of power plants and transmission lines which the company has spread over the northwestern part of the state. The lines reach as far north as Elkhart county and as far south in that section of the state as Lafayette, the official said.

The St. Joseph river is a moderately large river at that point and would develop just a modern amount of electrical energy.

The Indiana Hydroelectric Power company a subsidiary of the Interstate has completed the largest hydroelectric power plant in the system in the northwestern part of the state. It is located at Norway on the Tippecanoe river in White county. Another unit farther south on the river has been put under construction and a third has been planned.

An open ditch in West Third street, which was enclosed with a sewer tile several years ago, and extends to the corporation near Hodges Branch, is being filled up by the state highway workers, according to a complaint registered with the council. The city contends that it is entitled to an outlet for the tile, and the highway department is dumping refuse from the roadway, into the ditch, and filling it up. The matter will be taken up with state officials, in an effort to have the ditch cleaned and opened.

The sewer system will soon be laid in Memorial park addition by Stewart and Stewart, and it was suggested that the sewer committee investigate a system of laying the tile, fastened with an asphalt preparation, to prevent roots from doing damage in later years.

The preliminary plans for the landscaping of Memorial park were presented by James A. Lowry of Indianapolis, who was employed several months ago to assist in beautifying the new addition to the park. The preliminary survey was made so that suggestions and changes can be made, and the map will be exhibited in some downtown store window for inspection, before final acceptance of the plans.

Costly Negligence

Negligence in driving automobiles, which causes them to run into railroad trains is going to prove costly, because railroads have announced that they expect to retaliate; that instead of being on the defensive as in the past, they will be the complaining parties at the bar of justice.

Not so long ago the Great Northern railroad won a verdict for damages against a resident of Great Falls, Montana, who drove his automobile into a freight train, smashing the side of a freight car. The amount collected was small, but the railroad values the judgment as a precedent and expects to press suits of similar character where the motorist is at fault.

Though railroads are frequently at fault in running trains through towns and cities too fast, every fair-minded person will admit that they have done much to teach the motoring public caution. It has availed them little, and while they will not lessen their efforts to save lives and themselves damage suits, they can not be blamed if they retaliate in kind.

With millions of automobiles in America, the problem of keeping them off the railroad tracks becomes more and more perplexing. If the railroad companies, in threatening to collect damages and thus touch a vital spot with the automobile owner, can reduce the number of accidents at railroad crossings, they will perform a service not alone for themselves, but for the motoring public as well.

Every other means having failed, the railroads will not be censured for taking this course. The reckless driver, instead of receiving sympathy, will have to show cause why he should not be held responsible for his acts. This may cause him to think twice when he approaches a railroad crossing.

Land Bargains Going

The week seldom passes that does not witness the sale of another Rush county farm to a man living outside the county.

For some time past we have been pointing to the significance of outsiders coming here to buy farm land.

It can mean only one thing—that Rush county land is so cheap that far-seeing men, when they learn the way good farms have been selling, are quick to snap up the bargains. But the bargains will not last forever. In fact, they are already growing scarce. Rush county men who have money to invest will some day awaken to the fact that they have made a very grievous error in permitting outside capital to buy-up the farm real estate that has been selling for far less than it is actually worth.

The awakening process is already under way. Farmers are beginning to see light ahead and in taking stock of their possessions, they are finding that what they have is much more valuable than what it had been rated at in their minds.

As this feeling grows and the farms that can be purchased decrease in number, the price of land is going to mount.

Local investors who are permitting the bargains to slip through their fingers will some day regret that their judgment failed them.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Despite his approval of fraternal orders, as voiced by his address a few weeks ago to representatives of the fraternal congress who called at the White House, President Coolidge is not a "joiner." He belongs to no lodges, societies or similar organizations and knows no secret grips, passwords or incantations.

By accident rather than design on the part of the Republican convention, Coolidge's running mate, General Dawes, also is an outsider in fraternal affairs, never having ridden the goat at an initiation or otherwise qualified to wear the jewelry and insignia of any secret order.

If, as suggested, Dawes' failure to line up with the great mass of Americans as a "lodge member" was due to his alleged aversion to keeping secrets rather than his reluctance to taking an oath, then Coolidge's non-participation may be explained by the reverse formula: that while Coolidge could keep all the secrets—that is one of the best things Cal does—he doesn't like to swear to do so. The oath of office is declared to be the only oath ever indulged in by the president.

All four Democratic and Independent candidates for president and vice president, by contrast, are lodge members. Davis, La Follette and Wheeler are Masons, each having gone through all the grades up to and including the thirty-second degree. Bryan is an Odd Fellow.

ALTHOUGH the candidates' score is imperfect in the matter of fraternal allegiance, 100 per cent membership is claimed in the matter of religious affiliations. Davis and Dawes are Presbyterians.

Bryan and La Follette are Baptists.

Coolidge is a Congregationalist and Wheeler a Methodist. Harding was the first Baptist ever sent to the White House and Coolidge the first Congregationalist.

Davis, should he be elected, would enable the Presbyterians to tie the record of the Episcopalians, who today head the list with eight presidents to the Presbyterians' seven.

Next in line are the Unitarians, with four, and the Methodists with three. The Dutch Reformed Church has had two and the Catholics one.

To help Republicans "stick to Coolidge," G. O. P. headquarters is getting out millions of little stickers, about the size of postage stamps, bearing the admonition "Keep Cool."

Coolidge's picture on the stamp immediately suggests that the way to keep cool is to keep Coolidge.

ONE of the most interesting occasions at the White House in recent months got notice only in the society columns of Washington papers.

This was the over-Sunday visit, Sept. 12, of former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. On the face of it, and so far as any publicity about it went, the Lowden visit was purely a social one. Yet it is hard to imagine either Lowden or Coolidge week ending together from sheer social regard for each other. Particularly after Lowden declined the honor of second place on the ticket with Coolidge.

Could a transcript of their conversation be obtained, it would be easy to get odds that it dealt principally with the state of Illinois politics. Lowden, if he will, can be a big help to the G. O. P. out there.

If he does, the Illinois campaign certainly will be no "social affair."

Double Bill at Princess

The Princess crowds will enjoy a rare treat Wednesday and Thursday. They will have about the best saxophone organization that ever created music through the moaning dancing.

"For Sale," the First National screen version of Earl Hudson's story which is on exhibition at the Princess theatre shows an exact reproduction of the celebrated Le Ciel d'Enfer Cafes of Paris, which translated means Heaven and Hell. Artists were sent to Paris to photograph cafes in the Montmartre and the result was a faithful representation of the locale of one of the thrilling sequences of the story. The whimsical French idea of placing Heaven and Hell next door to each other is symbolic of the theme of the picture which deals with the unhappiness and suffering of a wealthy girl, who apparently, having everything, yet has not love.

Heaven Cafe is adorned with a blue sky studded with glittering stars and with angels and cherubs gliding through space. Hell Cafe represents the head of the devil with his huge open mouth serving as the entrance; large blazing eyes, giant tusks for teeth, and a leering, sardonic grin.

It is here that the various members of the cast, Claire Windsor, Adolphe Menjou, Robert Ellis, Mary Carr, Tully Marshall and Vera Reynolds go in their picture characters. George Archambault, himself a Frenchman, directed the picture, which is said to reflect Parisian slum life with extreme veracity.

"Since Tanlac relieved her ailments so thoroughly, my wife eats, sleeps and feels like a schoolgirl. She has gained weight until she hardly looks like the same person and even goes through a hard day's work at home joyful and smiling."

SERIES RULES TO BE MADE SUNDAY

Improbable That Baseball Classic -Will Start Before October 2, as Season Ends Sept. 30

NATIONAL CLOSES SEPT. 29

Giants Increase Lead to Game and Half by Splitting Double Header Robins Lose

By HENRY L. FARRELL (C. P. Staff Correspondent) New York, Sept. 17—Such rules for the 1924 world's series that can be undertaken before the winning team is known will be made here Sunday at a meeting of the presidents of the six contending clubs and Commissioner Landis.

The National League season closes Sept. 29 and the American schedule ends the following day. The series hardly could be started without one day of rest for the players so it is improbable that the classics will start before October 2.

In order to avoid a gamble with treacherous October weather, the games will be played as rapidly as weather conditions permit. If Detroit does not play the American League end, the teams could make overnight jumps and play on successive days.

In calling the meeting of the contending club owners, Commissioner Landis again failed to include an invitation of the presidents of the two leagues, John A. Heydler and Ban Johnson. The critics, remembering Johnson's warth last year are looking to another warm winter of politics and a revival of the Landis-Johnson feud.

By splitting even in a double-header with the Reds while the Brooklyn Robins were taking an awful pasting from the St. Louis Cards, the New York Giants increased their lead to a game and a half over the Robins. The Pirates broke even against the Phils but gained a half game on Brooklyn.

While the Yankees were rained out of competition in St. Louis, the Washington Senators beat the Indians and got a half game lead of three points.

The Detroit Tigers took a fine mauling from the Athletics and fell 4 1/2 games behind the Yankees.

New York, Sept. 17—The historic international challenge trophy, symbolic of the world's polo supremacy, will remain in the United States for three more years.

Under rules governing play for the trophy, Britain cannot challenge again for three years. America won the cup in 1921.

Rushville High School Court Team Goes For Contest Today

The first branch of sports for the Rushville high school for this season was to be indulged in this afternoon, when a tennis team composed of the stars in schools, went to Greensburg to meet a team of that city. A return game will be played here next week with Greensburg, and other matches are being planned with nearby cities.

The team from here was composed of Robert Newbold, Loren Winkler, Mike Arbuckle, Barton Cartmel and Marlin Alexander.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's hero: Jim Bottomly, Cardinal first baseman who with six hits smashed in 12 of his team's 17 runs, establishing a new major league record. The Cardinals had little difficulty in defeating the Dodgers 17 to 3.

The Senators went into the lead in the American League by defeating Cleveland 6 to 2 while the Yankees were rained out at St. Louis.

The Giants leaped farther into the lead in the National League, by splitting a pair of games with Cincinnati, while Brooklyn was losing. McQuillan won the first game for the McGraw men 5 to 1 while May let down the Giants in the second 3 to 1.

The Pirates broke even in a double bill with Philadelphia losing the first 6-5 and winning the second 13 to 7.

Earl Sheely tripled in the first inning with the bases clogged and the White Sox breezed along to an 8 to 4 victory over the Red Sox.

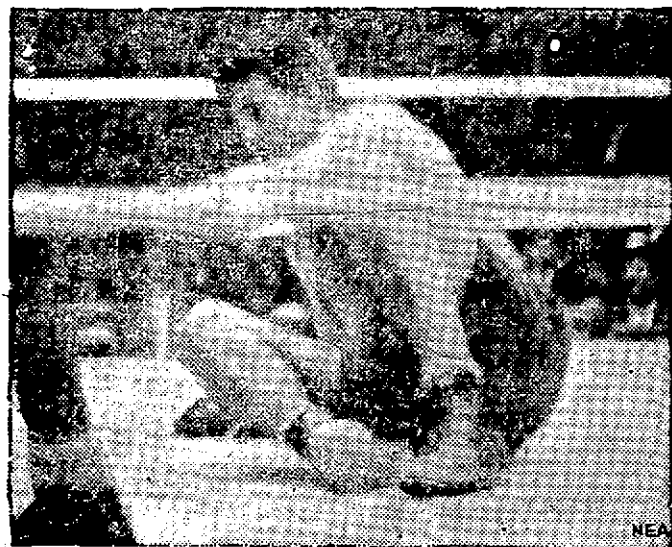

Detroit took a vicious trouncing from the Athletics 14 to 2.

Senators Furnish Thrill

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 17—When the committee of the United State Lawn Tennis Association, delegated to rank the American stars, meets at the end of the current season, it will have a job on its hands picking the players for the first 10 in both classes.

First place, of course, does not have to be considered. Selecting the best player in the men's and women's decision is no more than the formality and the exertion of writing William T. Tilden and Miss Helen Wills on the slip of paper.

While, in an extreme case, the winner of the national championships might not be the best player in the country, there is no doubt as to the standing of Tilden and Miss Wills. They are both head and shoulders above their classes.

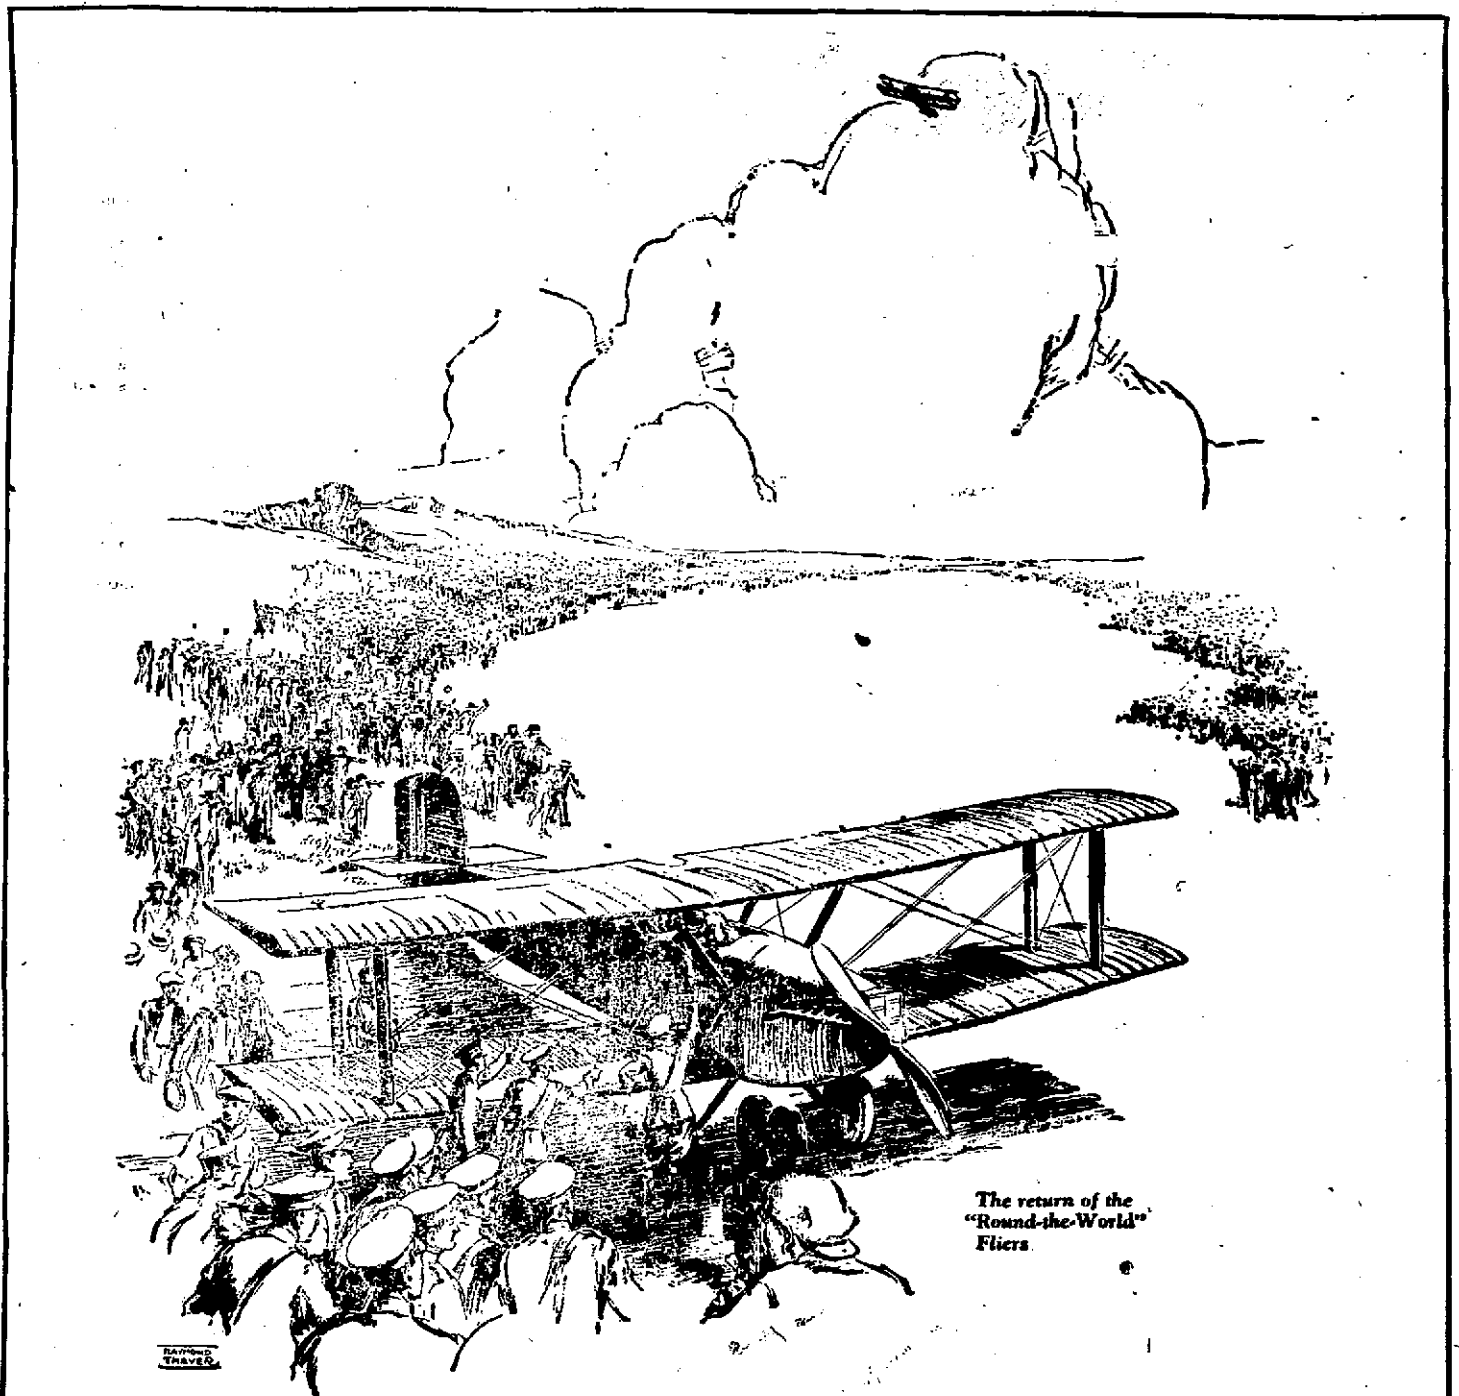

Tilden, because of his differences with the association officials, passed through a season of comparative inactivity as far as tournament competition was concerned. He did a lot of playing, of course, but before entry into the national tournament in defense of his championship, he had confined his game principally to the exhibition circuit.

Tilden could have cinched first place on the ranking list, however, if he had played only once during the season because in that one tournament he demonstrated most convincingly that he is not only the best player in the United States but the world's champion.

After the most brilliant season of her career, Miss Helen Wills, the 18-year-old national women's champion, did even more than Tilden to win first place on the ranking list. Her claim for a world's championship was not as firmly established as that of Tilden's, but she accomplished enough during a busy season to make her position clear as the women's world's champion for the season, at least.

The pretty, young California girl won the Olympic and national singles championship. With Mrs. George Wightman, Boston, she won the Wimbledon, Olympic and American doubles championship, and with young Vincent Richards she won the American mixed doubles championship. Very little more could have been accomplished by any player.

DEATH KNELL OF NUDE STOCKINGS WITH RETURN OF OLD BLACK HOSE

By HEDDA HOYT
(Fashion Editor of the United Press)
New York, N. Y., Sept. 17—

You can always bank upon the stocking. To follow Fashions though there's shocking. Where once dull black was deemed quite neat That shade was met with great defeat And shades that followed—a la mode— Were deemed as 'chic' and not as 'trude' And all the ladies looked as though They had bare underpins and so Dame Fashion who's a wise old wren Just called black stockings in again! Peel out, ye bells! And sound the death knell of the nude stocking. And peel out, ye Belles, of your nude leg encasements for the old black sock is to return!

Doubtless the nude stocking will have a long, drawn out demise as women will hate to suddenly give up light hosiery and return to more subdued tones. But there was a time when a sheer, black stocking on a shapely leg was considered mighty attractive and that day is coming back again.

In condoling those who weep over the 'nude's' demise let us say that 'legs is legs' after all and a pretty leg is even prettier in a dark stocking than in a nude one. Artists have said that there's nothing prettier about a nude leg and that any leg looks larger in nude hosiery. A motion picture director in speaking of a famous star once said, "Some women are born with large ankles and others wear nude stockings."

Nude hosiery has certainly been much overdone. Women haven't stopped to consider the size or shape of their ankles when triggling them out in hosiery that was bound to attract attention to their ungainliness. Nude hosiery has made legs—just legs! As an intriguing factor legs today rate as nil. They are just a blur of nude.

FORMER FORT WAYNE MAN

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 17—Fort Wayne claims the honor of having among its former residents the discoverer of the new anti-scarlet fever serum, it was learned today. The discoverer is Dr. George Dick, graduate of the Fort Wayne high school in 1900. The discovery is ranked in importance with the discovery of salvarsan, near-salvarsan, an insulin. It was made by Dr. Dick and his wife Gladys Dick after fourteen years of research at the Memorial Institute of Infectious diseases, at Chicago.

A supply of serum was received by a Fort Wayne clinic several weeks ago and has proven a complete success in experimentation.

While there seems to be no doubt in the minds of stocking manufacturers that brown and black stockings will hold their own again, it may be some months before we see them really appearing in numbers for styles so thoroughly established are slow to change. But we will see light shades of browns and grays in the immediate future and as winter approaches darker shades will begin to appear such as the new wood tones which match the fall shoes. Any number of tints are attached to these new brownish stockings such as carmel, hazel, wood brown, nutmeg, bronze brown, etc. Before we eventually turn to black we will probably wear gamut shades which have the effect of being sheer black.

For evening wear there are light pearl grays, silver marshmallows, and pinks which are somewhat off the nude tone. Since silver slippers are still prominent for evening wear we find silvery white stockings more popular than ever. With gold slippers new yellowish hosiery is being sponsored.

For streetwear, Fashion dictates that the stocking must match the shoe or match exactly the color of the frock. Those who continue to wear light hosiery with black slippers will choose light tans and grays and russet browns in preference to pinkish-nude tones.

Alexander Hodgins, colored, died Tuesday afternoon at the family home, 427 East Eighth street, death being caused from an illness with dropsy and heart trouble. The deceased was 69 years of age.

He was the father of Bertha Hodgins Flowers, who was shot and killed by her husband, Cassius Flowers in Muncie, two weeks ago last Sunday, and who was brought back home here for services and burial. The deceased is survived by the widow, two sons and three daughters.

CAMPAIGN DAY BY DAY

Senator Burton K. Wheeler, independent vice presidential candidate, furnished the day's political sensation with a statement charging that "the Ohio gang headed by Harry M. Daugherty and assisted by the Burns Detective Agency and the Republican national committee" are threatening blackmail proceedings against him.

Wheeler's statement came as he started the independent campaign in Ohio, Daugherty's home state.

John W. Davis, Democratic nominee invaded Iowa for a series of speeches in an effort to win the west for his party.

The White House denied reports that President Coolidge called Secretary of the Navy Willbur from the Pacific coast because of fear that his statements there would have an unfavorable reaction on the president's campaign for reelection.
